

co-author

Shakira Bell Releford

Shakira Bell Releford is an author, professor, entrepreneur, and consultant focused on philanthropy and nonprofits. She emphasizes Black leadership, innovation, and community building in her work. Committed to education and social impact, Shakira uses an interdisciplinary approach to leadership and theology, honoring the legacy of Black educators and leaders. Through her consulting, she helps nonprofits and mission-driven organizations enhance governance and support underserved communities. Her leadership exemplifies vision, resilience, and the pursuit of equity and collective progress.

leaderkeysunlocked.com/keystotriumph