

co-author

Dr. Sherone Smith-Sánchez

Sherone Smith-Sánchez is a versatile leader with extensive experience in research, education, social services, and organizational development. She is an Adjunct Associate Professor at York College and a Full-time Assistant Professor at Molloy University, holding a Doctorate in Educational Administration from Columbia University. Her dedication to community service includes board memberships, philanthropy, and ministerial work. Dr. Smith-Sánchez has participated in national workgroups on NYS education and quality improvement initiatives like QUALITYStarsNY. As an author, she has published articles and books, including the award-winning trilogy, Triumph in the Trenches, with a new book set for 2026 focusing on supporting black and brown professionals. Her accolades include the 2023 Nassau County Unsung Heroes Award and the 2024 U.S. Presidential Volunteer Award.

leaderkeysunlocked.com/keystotriumph