Latrice Torres is a highly sought after consultant, coach, speaker, panelist, moderator, and facilitator, with over 25 years of talent and leadership development experience. She launched her company, LeaderKeys Consulting, LLC, in June of 2020 to provide consultative services and coaching to individuals, teams and organizations.

Latrice is also the Founder of the Career Accelerator for Black Women, and the Executive Director, People & Culture for The Great Exhale™, a safe community for professional Black women.

As a champion for racial equity, Latrice contributes thought leadership to organizations varying stages of their DEI journey and helps them to connect to high quality DEI professionals to help them create actionable strategies. She is often referred to as a thought partner, to the thought partners.

Latrice has trained thousands of leaders across the United States, and internationally in Denmark, Sweden, the United Kingdom, and Singapore, to name a few. The best way to interact with Latrice is by connecting with her via LinkedIn, where she is a thought leader in several talent development spaces.

When she is not working with her clients, Latrice enjoys cooking, baking, tap dancing, and learning Japanese to play with her granddaughter in Japan!
